George Vezina Quits Game For Good Owing to Illness

Brilliant Goalie Of Canadiens Gives Up

Leaves Without a Word to Former Team-mates of Decision
LACROIX NEW MAN
First Time in Eleven Years Spare Has Been Needed

MONTREAL, Dec. 5.—George Vezina, veteran goalkeeper of the Canadiens, has been forced to quit the game through illness. For the last three years he has been ordered by his physician after 15 years of service to quit hockey for good.

Vezina left his team-mates Thursday without a word to indicate that he was not coming back and took the train home to his home in the city.

Collapsed Saturday
The beginning of the end came last Saturday night, when the veteran collapsed in the dressing room after the first period of the Canadiens-Pittsburgh battle.

His former team-mates were not told until today of his exit from sport, although Manager Lou Lamont knew it last night. "Perhaps they will play better if they think I am coming on," said Vezina, who requested that news of his going be kept from the team until the game.

Have Spare Goalie
The Canadiens were beaten by Pittsburgh last Saturday night and again by the Montreal Maroons last night. "Perhaps they will play better if they think I am coming on," said Vezina, who requested that news of his going be kept from the team until the game.

Goalie
When Lou Lamont, Vezina's coach, heard of his illness, he was in a state of panic. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said.

Lucky Devils
The Canadiens have not lost a game since Vezina's departure. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said.

Regular Now
It was generally expected that Vezina would be back in the Canadiens' line-up for the only time this Saturday night. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said.

SPORT REVIEW

Poor Weather Conditions
In all probability and taking the word of the weather prophet, today's game between the Tammany Tigers of Winnipeg and the Ottawa Senators for the Canadian rugby championship of the division will be played in rain. The capital has been visited by heavy snowstorms and the field should be in terrible condition for the playing of the annual classic.

Year of Upsets
This is the year of upsets and possibly the Tigers will continue to turn the dog the wrong way about. At the present time there are few who would risk any serious coin on the western team. The betting is about five to two that Ottawa will win. Pretty fair odds, these, and if the Tigers display anything like their real ability and have a few breaks come their way, there is going to be a lot of people carrying groceries around with them next week.

Miller Will Not Play
Joe Miller, who is signed by the Eskimos, will not be in Ottawa for the game. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said. "I have taken him off the team," he said.

At's Fair
It has been claimed for sometime by those who are supposed to know that it is fair to lose and win. Tomorrow's engagement will only be one of the two things, and there will not be any letting party.

Strong Team
Do not let anyone tell you that the Tigers are not a strong team. Right from the start of the present season they showed their superiority. In their first game they played last year's western Canada champions, the Victorians of the same city, and trounced that team by the score of 4 to 2. It was not until their third game had been played that an enemy was seen back of their last line.

Class Material
And speaking of material, the seven players mentioned above would not be turned down by any coach. Van Vleet is a 10-ounce man and weighs about 165 pounds. He is also a handy punter. Buckingham is a fourteen player with long experience, a nice turn of speed and a wonderful fast broken field runner. He has shown his class in every game this year. Ruth and McLean play right and left mid, respectively. Both are 21 years old and played rugby when coaches pointed out the man to get out of play. He is one of the hardest tacklers in the game today. His weight is 150 pounds striped and is by no means slow. When he hits the man, the man stops right in his tracks. He is a past master at hitting the line.

REMEMBER THE NAME

GRIBBON CLASSIC
TORONTO, Dec. 5.—The annual clash between Hamilton College and Queen's University is one of the gridiron classics among the smaller colleges. It was played at Kingston, Ontario, on Saturday, October 25, 1924, when Queen's won 10 to 0.

Canadian Rugby Classic to Be Played in East This Afternoon

SLOPPY FIELD
Raining Steadily in Capital—Ottawa at Fever Heat Over Event

Exclusive to Bulletin
OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—The Tammany Tigers, modern day gladiators of the gridiron, reached the capital this morning in quest of the Canadian rugby championship. The city greeted them with heavy rain, a cold wind and a generally gloomy look upon their faces. Throughout the night a half inch and half inch fell steadily and this morning the weather became even more disagreeable. At noon it was raining steadily. During the preceding week there has been cold weather and heavy snowstorms, with the result that today the arena is ankle-deep in mud.

BILLIARD PLAYER PROTESTS MATCH

Exclusive to Bulletin
NEW YORK, N.Y., Dec. 4.—Erlich Hagerstrich, champion billiard player of Germany, today protested against the playing of a match between him and the champion of the United States, John J. McGraw, manager of the National League baseball team. The German, in filing his protest with the National League, asserted that he already had a physical handicap, the result of the original Hagerstrich-Schaefer match, which was played in 1924. He asserted that he was not in the best of health and that the match only on condition that it be held in Germany, would meet him within thirty days. He lost.

McGraw Will Not Trade Three Men
NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Despite the fact that many of the officials were certain John J. McGraw, manager of the National League baseball team, would be willing to trade three of his best players for the champion of the United States, McGraw refused to do so. He asserted that he was not in the best of health and that the match only on condition that it be held in Germany, would meet him within thirty days. He lost.

First View of the Completed Victory Tower on Parliament Hill

A report comes from Chicago that "Red" Grange, football star extraordinary, has become engaged to Anne Forrest, noted stage star. Two photographs of "Red" were found, it is said, on her dressing table. Photo of Mrs. Forrest.

"Lukker," recently acquired by a Nebraska firm, is said to be the largest horse alive. He stands 21 hands high and weighs 3,000 pounds. He is a five-year-old bay gelding with black points.

The largest motion picture camera in the world will be used to photograph the total eclipse of the sun on January 14, 1926, at Benkeren, Sumatra. Capt. Barnet Harris, U.S.R., of the Harvard eclipse foundation, is shown.

President Clark Griffith of the Washington baseball club, with the family of his wife's widowed sister (right, back row) which he and Mrs. Griffith have adopted. Several years ago they took two of the kiddies. Recently they went to Montreal, where the children live, and adopted the remaining five.

Always (centre) is Mrs. Jesse Burnett, of Indianapolis, whose 267-word essay on "What the Motion Pictures Mean to Me" won her a trip around the world. There were 250,000 contributions. The distributors' association of which Will Hays (left) is president, sponsored the contest. Her husband (right) goes along.

Gretir Alvarsson, Canadian leader of the British Arctic expedition, who, it is now reported, was degraded of his captaincy on reaching the polar region.

Since the recent removal of the scaffolding which clocked the classic beauty of Victory Tower, the above is the first published view of the new complete memorial which crowns Parliament Hill, Ottawa. The 51 bell carillon is still to be installed. The old buildings were destroyed by fire, February, 1916.

FACIAL WRINKLES

Eye wrinkles are the first to appear in most cases, and they creep in as early as the thirties. They indicate general nervous tension, the hair becoming thin, the skin losing its elasticity, or they may be the result of eye-strain that could easily be corrected by the use of glasses.

As one passes through the twenties into the thirties these wrinkles become more numerous and the eye-lids take on a creasy appearance. Hence and such wrinkles begin to take form, and youthful beauty is gone.

It is possible, however, to put off the evil day when facial wrinkles can no longer be held to bay. If, I believe, every woman takes care to do so, many of us can retain youthfulness of face and figure.

We must first ascertain the source of facial wrinkles. Are they due to internal causes, or are they due to our habitual facial expression? After removing the cause we may repair the damage already wrought by the use of external beauty aids.

The facial part that is most overworked under a film studio mask is one of the most effective treatments. It is not necessary to pay an enormous price for a skin food to be used with the mask. Here is a simple recipe for such a cream: One ounce lanolin, one ounce oil of sweet almond, one ounce olive oil, one ounce apricot oil, one ounce alcohol, two ounces rose-water, six drops each of rose, ylang, and lavender. Blend the first four ingredients together in a double boiler. Remove from the fire and slowly beat in the others drop by drop.

Mrs. M. C. F. Jones today's beauty talk and sent a stamped advertisement for her beauty products. She is a resident of the city and is a member of the club.

Mariaetta, M. punies alone does not remove hair permanently. It just takes off the top. One should be very careful not to irritate the skin. The hair is not removed from the root, but only the top layer of the skin is removed.

"How can I develop my legs above the knees?"

Answer—Exercise. The muscles daily stand ready to develop and to a certain extent, arms at regular level of motion. Repeat exercises, jumping quickly from crouching position and vice versa.

St. Luke's Bazaar Well Patronized

Semi-Annual Event Opened by Mr. Rice Sheppard

Bright decorations in Christmas hues and a gay atmosphere with the W.A. colors of green and gold prevailing at the festive and smiling tables where afternoon tea was served, made an attractive picture of St. Luke's Hall on Thursday afternoon, when the semi-annual W.A. bazaar was held. Many visitors called themselves, of the order, and the first and Mrs. W. C. Card, and Mrs. F. C. Cates, were responsible for the tea-room, assisted by Mrs. Christensen and Mrs. Rice.

Is your Boy "A Regular Fellow"?

YOU know what it means to your boy to be popular with his friends—to be "a regular fellow." You know how it trains boys in sportsmanship, in manliness, in thinking for themselves, to get out on the playing field with other boys. Whatever plans you make for your boy, make sure he can enjoy companionship and healthful play. Make sure that his bodily equipment is right.

It is the foods we daily eat which must supply to our bodies the elements which give us energy and vitality, which build up our bones and muscles and which build up our minds too! Make sure that your boy receives the right kind of food.

Grape-Nuts is the food for your boy. Grape-Nuts was designed by an expert in food values to supply to the body the vital elements necessary to its proper nourishment.

And Grape-Nuts is a crisp food! A food boys like to chew. A food which gives the teeth and gums the exercise they must have for healthful development.

A special baking process prepares Grape-Nuts for digestion—gives your boy the fuel and fuel-building elements he needs, with the least digestive effort.

Serve Grape-Nuts for breakfast tomorrow. Serve it with milk or cream just as it comes from the package. Four teaspoonsful are enough for this food is rich in nourishment. It is in our serving costs less than one cent! Your boy will surely like the nut-like flavor stored up in the crisp, golden Grape-Nuts kernels—a flavor which is enjoyed by millions. All grocers have Grape-Nuts in wax-wrapped packages.
